ALEXANDER CASE CALLED YESTERDAY

Secured in Noted Case and Trial
Entered Into.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN.

The trial of the first case against George Alexander, under indictment in thirty-two cases in the Bourbon Circuit Court, was called by Judge Robert L. Stout yesterday morning and with the selection of the jury the first move in the opening of the now celebrated case was made.

A special venire of sixty had been summoned for jury service, and after the winnowing process had been applied fifteen men filled the jury box. The prosecution challenged three and the defense nine. The jury as finally selected to try the case was made up of the following:

C. N. Martin, grocer; Robt. D. Adair, farmer; Ray Burris, farmer; Will Turner, farmer; J. H. Kennedy, farmer; Thornwell Tadlock, bookkeeper; Reynolds Letton, farmer; Steele Marsh, farmer; B. T. Mattox, farmer; W. A. Thomason, farmer; Roger Crouch, farmer. The jury was sworn and excused until 2 p. m., and court was adjourned.

When the big bell boomed out the hour of two the Circuit Court room resembled more a fashionable gathering than an audience come to attend a trial in a court of justice. A large number of ladies were interested spectators. The defendant, looking pale and showing evidence of mental strain, came into court, accompanied by Mrs. May Alexander, his two daughters, Miss Kate Alexander and Mrs. Edith Alexander Bronston, Mrs. Laura Wiggins, Mr. John Wiggins, Mr. Arthur Hancock, Mrs. John Sturt Roberts, Mrs. Waiter Kenney and Mrs. Swango.

When court opened Commonwealth's Attorney Victor Bradley stated that the defendant would be tried on the charge of accepting a deposit of $51 from J. W. Doty, at the time knowing that the bank was insolvent. The defense entered a demurrer, which was overruled.

The attorneys for the defense then announced that their client would waive examination and enter a plea of "not guilty" to the charge as read in the indictment.

Commonwealth's Attorney Bradley presented the case for the prosecution to the jury and stated that the evidence as adduced from the testimony of the witnesses and the probe of the banking commission, would show a carnival of crime, double-dealing, forgery, and embezzlement seldom shown in a court of justice. He placed the shortage at what he claimed was a conservative estimate—$200,000.

Following the statement to the jury the taking of testimony was begun. The first witness examined was Mr. Owen Davis, former general bookkeeper of the bank, who was afterward given the title of Cashier. Mr. Davis testified to different amounts being credited by Mr. Alexander to various accounts from the account of Jos. K. Redmon in order to cover up overdrafts.

Paul C. Snyder, of Louisville, the expert accountant employed by the State Banking Commission, testified as to a number of notes which had been paid by renewal, and which in every case had been added to the assets of the bank by Mr. Alexander, although they were worthless. Mr. Snyder said the O'Neil Hemp Brake Company was shown to be indebted to the bank, at the time of its closing in the sum of $42,500. This money had also been juggled by Mr. Alexander to his personal advantage. One hundred and twenty-four shares of the Power Grocery Company stock, valued at $42,500, was alleged to have gone into the same channels.

Deputy State Banking Commissioner R. R. Revel tested to the manner in which the closing of the bank came about; how Mr. Alexander called State Banking Commissioner Thos. J. Smith from the room to make a private statement and how Mr. Smith compelled him to tell everything to the Board of Directors, which resulted in closing the bank.

Mr. Snyder's testimony closed the day's proceedings, and court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Snyder will again take the stand.

The jury was placed in the charge of the Sheriff, and took supper at a restaurant, after which they were quartered at the Fordham Hotel for the night.

RESIDENCE BURGLARIZED.

While Rufus "Stormy" Stivers, L. & N. engineer, calmly slept the hours away at his home on High street, Saturday night, a cold, unfeeling burglar in pursuit of loot, entered his room, and when Rufus awoke in the cold grey dawn of Sunday morning his trousers were gone. So was a gold watch, $175 in cash and other valuables. The police are investigating. Meanwhile, "Stormy" says this is a cruel world.

ROAST PIG SOCIAL.

Paris Lodge No. 373, B. P. O. E. will have a "roast pig" social at their club rooms in the Bourbon Bank building to-night.

PARIS SENDS DONATION FOR BELGIAN SUFFERERS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In response to a call recently made for contributions for the relief of the suffering Belgians, eleven large boxes, filled with clothing and other articles, were sent from Paris and the surrounding country to the gathering point in Lexington, Saturday. Headquarters had been established in the Paris Christian church, and the people of the city and county made a quick and generous response to the appeal. Most of the contributed articles were new, and consisted in the main of shoes, underwear, clothing of all kinds, and wraps.

Millersburg contributed three of the eleven boxes sent to Lexington, and there were generous responses from all parts of the county. The work was in charge of the Women's Bible Class of the Christian church.

Moved to action by a realizing sense of the awful destitution and suffering that is prostrating the Belgian people and almost causing them in addition to the horrors of war, to lose their identity as a nation, the teachers and school children of Paris and Bourbon county are soliciting funds for the war sufferers, whose pitiful condition has brought from the pockets of the people of this community a generous outpouring of substantial aid, so sorely needed.

An entertainment will be given at their hall on High street this evening by the Ladies' League of the Catholic Church, the proceeds to be applied to the relief fund for the Belgian people.

If there is one sorid soul in the confines of Paris and Bourbon county that would refuse to contribute of his or her means to this campaign in the interest of humanity, he or she ought to be pilloried on the court house square, and exposed to the contempt of the whole human race, or at least the population of the city of Paris. Other communities might be easily giving such a cose to some of their own.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

Christmas is coming. Prepare by buying from Winters during the big auction, now going on.

NEW COAL CHUTE NOW IN OPERATION.

The new concrete coal chutes over the L. & N. tracks near the Tenth street passenger station, completed recently at cost approximately of $40,000, were put into commission Friday for the first time. The new chutes reduce the working time of coaling engines and are one of the most complete of the kind on the L. & N. system.

"THE HOLY CITY."

One of the rarest musical treats to be offered to the public this season will be found in the presentation of the Holy City oratorio, to be given at the Christian Church, on the evening of November 26th. The oratorio has been in process of rehearsal for several weeks. The choir consists of some of the best vocal talent in Bourbon county. The production of the oratorio will merit the presence of every music-lover in the city and county. The oratorio is given by the combined choruses of North Middletown, Clintonville and Paris Christian churches.

The soloists are some of the best vocalists in the county. The soprano soloists are Misses Elizabeth Mary Hayden, of Paris, and Mrs. J. W. Jones, of North Middletown. The alto, Mrs. Tom Arkle, of Paris, the tenor, E. J. Davis, of Chicago, the bass, A. L. Boatright. The duet is sung by Mrs. B. R. Dickerson, Mrs. Tom Arkle and Miss Mabel Arnold. The ladies' quartette by Miss Hinton, Miss Susanna Belt, Mrs. Tom Arkle and Miss Mabel Arnold.

Tenor soloist is one of the popular soloists of Chicago. Mr. Davis is one of the soloists with the West Side Club, (Chicago), and also is the soloist with the North Side Musical Festival Association, (Chicago). Mr. Davis will sing several solos besides the ones in the oratorio. The personnel of the chorus is as follows:

KENTUCKIAN NOW HEAD OF U. S. ARMY.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 23.—Brig. Gen. Hugh H. Scott, for many years a conspicuous figure in the United States army, had official notice Saturday that President Wilson had selected him to become chief of staff upon Major General Wetherpoon's retirement next Monday. That change will result in the promotion to Major General of Brig. Gen. Frederick D. Funston, who took command of the forces at Vera Cruz soon after the American occupation, and Brig. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss will become chief of the mobile army division. Gen. Scott will succeed to a major generalship upon the retirement of Major General Murray next April.

Gen. Scott was born in Danville, Ky., in 1853. His services in the army, that began thirty-nine years ago, after his graduation from West Point, has been marked by his various administrations among American Indians and the savage tribes in the Philippines.

As a cavalry lieutenant at border army posts he learned numerous Indian dialects and the language of signs, which enabled him many times to quiet angry tribes threatening warfare. In the Spanish war Gen. Scott received a volunteer commission as major and assistant adjutant general attached to the Fifth army corps. He saw active service on the Mexican border during the Madero revolution, after which he was promoted to brigadier general.

He will serve as chief of staff until 1917, when he retires on account of age. Brig. Gen. Bliss, as assistant chief of staff, will retire the same year.

Gen. Funston's military career began in 1896, when he became a captain in the Cuban insurgent army. As a brigadier general of volunteers in the Philippines he captured the rebel leader Aguinaldo, which practically ended the revolt against American rule. He was educated at the University of Kansas, and began work as a newspaperman.

one 6 years old, and the youngest an infant, born last February.

The body has been removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. Adrian M. Iselin, No. 711 Fifth avenue, from which place the funeral services will be held.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

SHERIDAN'S CHUM DEAD.

COLUMBUS, O. Nov. 23.—Henry C. Filler, 90 years old, the man who made it possible for Phil Sheridan to go to West Point, died at Columbus, Monday.

Mr. Filler and General Sheridan were boyhood friends at Somerset. When a Congressional appointment to West Point was open Mr. Filler received the appointment and General Sheridan was named alternate.

CONSUMPTION TAKES 350 PEOPLE DAILY.

Over 350 people succumb to consumption every day in the United States.

Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists.

The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enlivening the blood, it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, naturally, feel languid and weak, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known. It is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug. Avoid substitutes.

NOVEL "MOVIE" USES

Films to Be Employed in Educational Work.

Great Railroad Will Use Them to Show Result of Workman's Carelessness—Hope to Get Scenes Showing War's Horrors.

The New York Central railroad has had a moving picture "play" constructed around the story of a trainman's carelessness which resulted in an accident in which he was injured, and his family left needy. It has been carted around the great system and shown to employees, on whom it made a great impression. Other roads are going to borrow the films and carry the show over their lines, as a means of inculcating the solid principles and lessons of the "safety first" campaign.

It is announced that a series of moving picture shows will be provided at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, to illustrate work of the government departments. The department of agriculture has for some time been doing experimental work, looking to the extensive use of moving pictures to educate farmers, chicken raisers, dairymen, and others, in proper methods.

The public health service work is especially susceptible to this kind of presentation in the effort to educate the public.

Commercial concerns have been studying the publicity possibilities of the films for a long time, and they are using them, in some ways, but their use for pure commercial advertising has not thus far been made very effective. It is in the realm of educational effort that they carry their lesson most effectively.

If somebody has been able, or shall have been able before the war ends, to get some properly impressive films of war scenes, the "movies" will give the world its most striking demonstrations of the desirability of peace and the horrors of war.

FOUND CHAMPION MEAN MAN

Walter Long, One of the Best-Known Leading "Heavies," Administrates Rebuke That Must Have Stung.

Walter Long, one of the leading "heavies" with the Reliance and Majestic Mutual organizations, believes that he is the discoverer of the stingiest man in the world.

Long is a powerful swimmer. At the beginning of the summer season he was named as one of the municipal life guards at Ocean park, working on Sundays and holidays when the crowds at the beach were the largest.

A swimmer who went out beyond the breaker line became caught in a rip tide and shouted for help. Long went to his assistance, and, after a hard struggle with the big breakers, succeeded in bringing the near drowning man ashore, where he was revived.

A short time later the rescued man, nattily dressed in his street clothes and wearing a big diamond, appeared and thanked Long for saving his life. "Here, have a good cigar on me," said the rescued individual as he proffered Long a dime. Long was on his way to purchase a sandwich and had a five-cent piece in his hand.

He accepted the proffered ten cents and returned the nickel with the statement, "Here is your change." The man whom Long rescued accepted the five cents and then beat a hasty retreat. Long has nailed the dime to the wall of his dressing room as a memento of the occasion.

LUKE MC LUKE SAYS.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

There was a time when early to bed made a man wise. But nowadays the man who hits the hay too early doesn't get to much.

You can live in the same square that you do not belong in her circle.

Some women give their husbands the keys to their hearts and then change the locks.

Some men are kept so busy putting things off until tomorrow that they do a hard day's work without accomplishing anything.

You can believe all you hear and get by. But if you try to say all you believe you are going to spend a lot of your time in a hospital.

A girl doesn't always spend three hours a day propelling a player piano just because she likes music. Maybe her calves need developing.

Virtue may be its own reward. But a good man doesn't always make good.

The man whose head is so swelled that he knows he loves little to be desired is in the same class as a burglar or a porch climber.

We all overestimate our capacity when we are looking for trouble.

The old-fashioned woman who used to wash the clothes in the morning and wash her hair in the afternoon now has a daughter who sends her clothes to the laundry in the morning and her hair to the dry-cleaner in the afternoon.

A girl doesn't get mad because you kiss her. If she gets mad it is because you do not pretend to use force and give her a chance to put up a losing battle.

When some people cast their bread upon the waters they expect a half-column boost in each of the local papers.

TOO SLOW WITH LAWN MOWER.

Stella Razeto, leading woman of Director E. J. Le Saint's company, is the champion lawn moweress of the Pacific film colony. At least the Selig star claims the title. She managed to do her own extensive lawn in less than a week, but hubby found her in tears at the close of the last day. She found the grass, where she began, had all grown up again.

MILITARY SCENES POPULAR.

George Kleine's six-part subject, "For Napoleon and France," was recently produced at the Boston opera house. The military aspects of the picture are heavy drawing cards.

DECIDEDLY PRETTY PHOTO-PLAY. "Daylight," "Flying A" release, is a pretty and well acted photo-play, the third of the series following "In the Moonlight" and "In the Firelight."

EARLY WAR NEWS.

GERMANS AIM TO CRUSH RUSSIANS.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Comparative calm in the west and reawakened activity in the east, are taken by London to indicate that the German military chiefs have decided to concentrate their energies at the present stage of the war toward dealing, if possible, a crushing blow to Russia.

The storm continues and the waters of the North Sea flow through the locks at Nieuport, which the allies opened to flood the lowlands and hold back the German advance. Notwithstanding the extent of the flooded area the invaders hope to renew their advance. Large numbers of engineers are being sent to the front and German ingenuity is to be put to the test to provide a scientific method of crossing the inundated country.

U. S. DETERMINED TO AVOID COMPLICATEDS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—On "the intent" of the Turks at Smyrna in firing on the launch of the cruiser Tennessee depends the outcome of the episode.

Acting Secretary of State Lansing, Thursday night said the instructions of the department to Ambassador Morgenthau were to make "inquiries" concerning the affair and advise this Government fully.

He drew a distinction between making "inquiries" and asking for an "explanation," although he admitted that under the instructions the Ambassador would be expected to find out how and why the firing occurred.

President Wilson conferred Thursday night with Secretary Daniels, of the Navy Department, and Acting Secretary Lansing. The President summoned the two Secretaries to learn if there had been any word from Turkey shedding light on the reasons for firing. If there is continued delay, it is probable that the American Government will ask the British Admiralty for the courtesy of its wireless in the Mediterranean to reach the American ships.

Officials of the State Department emphasized the determination of this Government to avoid becoming involved in the European war. They indicate their intention to go to almost any length to avoid complications with Turkey.

This is interpreted to mean that in the event of an open rupture this Government would take no aggressive action. Its course would probably be to get all Americans out of Turkish territory quickly. Inasmuch as the United States has assumed charge of the diplomatic interests of the allies, its activities would probably be extended to getting out all Christians, even if in doing so it had to make use of armed forces.

The belief is that when that is accomplished the United States will withdraw its ships and allow the whole matter to hang fire until after the close of the European war. Then it will present its bill for indemnities, and, if necessary to use force to obtain satisfaction, will do it at that time, when it will be possible to evade having a part in the world war.

VILLA'S MARCH UNOBSTRUCTED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—General Villa's march on Mexico City continues unobstructed, according to official telegrams from American Consular agents who are accompanying him.

Two thousand Carranza troops changed their allegiance on the arrival of the Villa advance at Leon, the dispatches said, and garrisons all along the line are incorporating themselves in the Villa columns.

CARRANZA HOSTILE TO U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Carranza followers are fleeing from Mexico City, Consul Silliman telegraphed the State Department to-day.

He said that Mexico City is in a state of unrest and that disquieting rumors are afloat.

There is no disguising at the State Department now the fact that Carranza and all of his chief lieutenants are bitterly hostile to the United States.

It is because of this knowledge that the State Department agents in Mexico have supported Villa. The latter at all times has been friendly to the United States and has insisted that, unless Mexico receives the co-operation of this Government it could not hope to rehabilitate itself.

OBREGON DENOUNCES VILLA.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20.—General Obregon, supreme commander of this district, late Thursday night issued a manifesto calling on all citizens to unite against General Villa, who he denounces as a traitor and criminal. He said Villa's whose purpose is "to sacrifice the country on the altar of personal ambition."

DRAMA OF THE SEA

"Neptune's Daughter," a Thriller of the Films.

Annette Kellermann, the Heroine of Popular Production—Al Filson in Play That Is Destined to Have Long Run.

"Neptune's Daughter" is a phantasy of the sea. Annette Kellermann, known the world over as a swimmer and diver, is the star of the play, which is given in seven reels and 500 scenes.

The pictures were made last winter on the picturesque coast of Bermuda, with its rugged rocks, sandy beaches, dark caves, turbulent waters and semitropical verdure. It took three months to complete the pictures and the cost was enormous.

The story of the play, in brief, is this: Annette is the daughter of Father Neptune, and he and his 40 other daughters are seen disporting themselves in the water. Annette and her little sister, Angela, are caught in a net. Annette escapes, but Angela is dragged ashore, hidden in seaweed, and is wounded on the rocks. Annette finds her dying and swears vengeance on the fishermen. Obtaining a charm which will transform her into a girl, she sets out to punish those responsible for her sister's death.

After a long series of adventures, in which the king who rules over the fishermen falls in love with her, she loses the charm and has to remain a girl and becomes the queen of the handsome young king who, with the help of Annette, has overthrown a usurper to his throne.

Dramatic Escape.

Mlle. Gabrielle Robinne was once called upon to make a dramatic escape from a castle in which she had been imprisoned, for a film. The castle, surrounded by a moat, was searched for a small window which would suit the purpose. At last one was found and the actress assumed her position within for the rehearsal.

The boat of rescuers put off across the moat, the rope ladder was thrown up and the hooked end duly caught upon the sill. In due course, the heroine appeared at the window, bent upon her escape. The bars, which had been improvised for the purpose, were removed, and the prisoner thrust her shoulders through the aperture. But she became wedged half-way. One of the party below scaled the ladder and endeavored to assist her from the strange predicament, while on the inner side two other actresses lent assistance. Mlle. Robinne was unable to extend any personal assistance, being convulsed with laughter. At last, after considerable prizing, pushing and tugging, she came through with a bewildering suddenness. The man on the ladder was precipitated into the moat, while the actress tumbled unceremoniously into the waiting boat, the trio below breaking her fall slightly, though she struck one of the seats somewhat violently.

VILLA'S MARCH UNOBSTRUCTED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—General Villa's march on Mexico City continues unobstructed, according to official telegrams from American Consular agents who are accompanying him.

When a large and agile lion escaped at the Selig Jungle-Zoo several months ago, Lee Morris, an extra, garbed as a bold knight, sizzled through the ambient atmosphere of the grounds for the distance of a half mile. He found the lion there when he arrived. Thereupon Lee turned around and went right back again, breaking the world's record which he had established but a few seconds before. Manager Thomas Persons laughed so hard they had to resuscitate him with a pail of water. He engaged Morris as a regular member of the comedy company immediately. This explanation will enlighten the comedian, for the first time, as to the real reason for his engagement.

Where He Made His "Hit."

Strong Cast in "Hearts and Masks."

With Kathryn Williams in the title role, and Charles Clary as Galloping Dick of MacGrath's delightful "Hearts and Masks," the multiple reel special is on its way for a big run, according to indications. Director Colin Campbell has double braced every portion of the photo play structure. Wheeler Oakman plays the other victim of the ten-spot of hearts while Eugenie Besserer, the French emotional actress, portrays Mrs. Hyphen-Bonds. The film fairly sparkles with rare comedy, while there is an all-pervading mystery hanging over it from beginning to final denouement.

"Sands of Fate" Strong Film.

Dorothy Gish is featured in "Sands of Fate," a strong two-reel drama produced by Donald Crisp. An act of self-sacrifice on the part of a husband when he empties his water bottle on a burning desert so that he will not be in the way of his wife marrying the man of her choice is one of the features of this production. Robert Harron, R. A. Walsh and Cora Drew are principals in the cast.

Identified With "Mother" Roles.

Rose Tapley, well-known Vitagraph screen performer, plays primarily "mother" roles. During her film activity she has played such roles over a thousand times.

New Comedy in Preparation.

"The Mysterious Black Box" is the title of a novel comedy written by W. E. Wing and now being produced at the studio of the Selig Polyscope company.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY MARKET

The market for the Thanksgiving turkey trade conducted in Paris, Millersburg, Carlisle and Flemingsburg by Chas. S. Brent & Bro. of this city, closed last Wednesday, but the slaughtering and shipment of the "toothsome" birds to the Eastern markets continued a few days longer. The crop was unusually large, but the quality of the birds was not up to the average. The price paid for them was from eleven to fourteen cents on foot, and many thousand pounds were shipped. The Christmas trade will open in about ten days, but the demand will probably not be as large as the Thanksgiving market. Dressed turkeys will retail on the local market at twenty-five cents per pound.

FINE TOBACCO PROSPECTS.

Discussing prospects of the tobacco market Silas Shelburne, the veteran Lexington warehouseman, said: "So far as we can see the Burley crop dealers a better position than for some years past, the stock on hand at this time being 22,000,000 pounds less than it was at this time last year. The consumption for the last six months from April to October was 110,000,000 pounds, considerably over a half of the entire Burley crop, which shows that the demand is increasing. So, while we do not expect any fancy prices, we expect that the prices paid last year for the same class of tobacco."

SHIP HORSES FOR ARTILLERY AND CAVALRY SERVICE.

Messrs. Thomas McClintock and E. B. Myers, the prominent stock dealers of Millersburg, shipped carload of artillery horses to Lexington, Saturday, consigned to an agent of the British Army who will tranship them to England, for use in artillery and cavalry branches of the army. The horses were sold at prices ranging from $75 to $150 per head. Several hundred head of these horses are being gathered together at Lexington, where they will be examined by an experienced inspector from the Army Bureau the latter part of this week.

GOT REALISM HE WANTED

Film Director Went After Substantial Thrills, and Pictures Show He Obtained Them.

Ned Finley, one of the Vitagraph directors, believes in realism and always makes every effort to inject substantial thrills in his pictures, often going to the extreme limit of caution. In a very recent film story on which he was at work, he engaged the services of a sharpshooter, whose duty was to make a "hit" as close to the director as he dared. The scene of the picture shows Mr. Finley shooting from a dismantled barn with bullets splintering the wood within a few inches of his body. In the same picture, Mr. Finley falls from a horse and rolls down an embankment. The first time he essayed the fall, it was so realistic that a new camera man became so interested in its sensational realism he neglected to film the scene. A second attempt, the next day, was spoiled by a spectator, who, thinking Mr. Finley was hurt, rushed in front of the camera. The third time was successful, so far as the actual taking of the scene was concerned, but Mr. Finley, in his headlong descent down the embankment, failed to notice a tree stump and a collision resulted in a very much bruised director, but a happy one, because of his realistic ambitions being fully realized.

Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm." —Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, Miss.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever." —Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.

AMERICAN GOWNS DISPLAYED FOR CHARITY

Drooping Shoulder Effects and Full Skirts Among the Modes.

SHORT SKIRTS AND TRAINS

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.

In the name of Charity a wonderful effe has just been given—a fashion fete where only American designed gowns were displayed! The proceeds are to go to aid the suffering Belgian women and children. It is safe to say that many families will be thankful to the enterprising society people in New York who are responsible for the success of this fete.

The foremost dressmakers in New York City displayed their gowns, which were designed especially for the occasion, each hoping, by some original idea to catch the eyes of the fashionable audience and secure their custom to themselves.

Military Effect Given this By Frogs

Ideas from many periods were combined with up-to-date styles to give variety in the costumes. For instance the drooped shoulder effect was shown many times with skirts to full and rippy that they gave the appearance of being over hoops. A dress of distinctly modern silk and with the newest basque effect in front had a drooped waistline in the back and a real bustle! You couldn't mistake it!

Rich silks, brocaded, plain and ribbed, chiffon, silk net, beaded net cloth of gold and silver were the material used for the evening gowns, which were a prominent feature of the exhibition.

Broadcloth, velour, duvetyne and velvet developed the street suits and dresses.

The skirts were full short, even the skirts to the evening dresses. Inconsistent as fashion often is in these dresses they were sometimes short and yet with a train in the back! One evening dress was made of a peculiar green, almost a peacock shade, covered with a scroll design which gave a watered finish to the material. The waist was made with a shallow V in the front and high in the back. The skirt was short and slashed in the front. In the back the skirt was slightly longer than in front, but the whole appearance was shorter than we have been accustomed to. From the shoulder hung a long and narrow train of beaded net, which did not touch the dress any place but at the shoulders.

The long waisted moyen age effects were seen as well as the short waisted Empire effects. A dress of purple silk net was made with this charming short waist, a skirt hung rather full, draped up slightly in the back and ending in a modest train. At the back of the low round neck was fastened a wide strip of tulle which was caught with a ring to one of the fingers of each hand. This flowing effect of tulle is most popular. Sometimes it falls the full length of the gown, sometimes it is short, and again it is caught only upon one hand. Often a scarf of tulle is worn with an evening dress. If the dress is white it may be in almost any delicate color, if the dress has color in it, however, the scarf should correspond in some way with the coloring of the dress.

Another evening dress was of cloth of gold. The waist was made very full over a foundation of white satin. A soft ruffle of gold lace outlined the round neck. A bow of dull blue ribbon, tied with long loops which were wired, was worn in place of the corsage bouquet. The skirt was made with double flounces each scalloped with deep rounded scallops. Gold lace edged these scallops. The skirt was ankle length.

Full skirts were prominent. Skirts made with gores which rippled out in huge godets in the back. The drooped shoulder effect which was prominent in the days of hoop skirts is also seen.

A taupe colored velvet dress had a waist opening in the back, perfectly plain in the front but with plenty of fullness so that it did not draw over the bust. This waist extended from a low waistline up into a high collar which wrinkled softly about the neck.

A jumper dress of dark green broadcloth and velvet I have used for my illustration. The over-dress is of broadcloth braided in a simple but effective design around the V neck and deep armhole. The under-dress and skirt is of velvet. The waist made with a simple rolling collar. A flaring velvet hat with a single quill for trimming was worn with this dress.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Dailey attended the funeral of Mrs. G. W. Sidener at Paris, Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Belle Sanders, of Norwood, O., a daughter of Mrs. Sidener, who spent the day Monday with them.

Mr. Young and family, who moved to the property of Mrs. Amanda Mastin last summer from Lexington, have returned to their former home. Mr. Young during the time here was engaged as special plumber on the work in the annex in the M. F. C.

Don't forget the sale of good things to eat to be held by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. They will have something especially tempting for your Thanksgiving dinner. Cakes, fowls and pies a specialty. Place your order with any of the ladies of the church now.

An especially good menu will be provided at the Mitchell House on Thanksgiving day, for the delectation of its patrons. I desire to thank the many friends of my wife and myself in the town and community for their kindness to us during her illness and after her death.

The personal property, which consisted mostly of live stock, of Peed & McClintock, was sold at public sale Saturday afternoon, most everything bringing fair prices. The stock barn and a part of their real estate was offered for sale and was bid to $2,615 and rejected.

Thanksgiving will be observed by banks and postoffice. Thanksgiving services will be held at the Christian church Thursday at 10:30 a. m. The sermon will be preached by Rev. A. S. Venable, of the Presbyterian church. A special musical program is being prepared.

PARIS TRIMS FRANKFORT.

The Frankfort High School football team came near being annihilated in the game with the Paris team, played Friday afternoon in Paris, at White Park, and the majority had to be taken to the doctor's office in Paris for "repairs" before starting home. Albert Lane, Franklin Johnson, Clarence Zimmerman and George Kaltenburn, of the Frankfort team, were the worst "done up," although none was hurt seriously but Captain Kaltenburn, who suffered a broken nose and other severe bruises. His wounds were attended to in Paris, and he is resting as comfortable as possible.

The game, which was an exciting one from start to finish, resulted in a defeat for the visiting team, the score being 3 to 0.

The line-up was as follows:

Frankfort—Keller, Kash, Suppinger, Johnson, Lane, Saunders, Triplett, Clark, Euler, Rogers, Schlegel, Kaltenburn, Boo and Zimmerman.

Paris—Lavin, O'Connell, Hutchcraft, Adair, Tackett, McShane, Tempkin, Wagoner, Redmon, Connell, Sterling, Clayton and Payne.

THANKSGIVING SALE.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Thanksgiving sale of eatables at the office of the Paris Gas & Electric Company to-morrow. They will have a most enticing display of Thanksgiving delicacies.

JOHN LONERGAN

News was received here yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Mary Lonergan, aged 85 years, formerly of Paris, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Will Lonergan, in Cincinnati, Sunday night.

Mr. Lonergan was the widow of the late Mr. John Lonergan, who preceded her to the grave about eighteen years ago. She was a native of Ireland and came to America about forty years ago.

Mrs. Lonergan was a woman of lovable Christian character and was full of that lovable native wit that makes the Irish people so congenial.

The remains will arrive in Paris to-morrow on the 10:24 a. m. L. & N. train from Cincinnati. The funeral services will take place at the Catholic Church after the arrival of the funeral cortège from the L. & N. station, conducted by Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn. Burial in the Catholic cemetery.
